Arrive in Paris this morning, where you will meet your tour director. You will begin a drive through the beautiful countryside to Giverny, the inspiration and final home of Impressionist Claude Monet. Continue to Caen for your welcome dinner and overnight.

October 2 – Caen (Normandy Beaches)

Connect with history today with a visit to the U.S. Military Cemetery near Omaha Beach. The Omaha Museum offers a chronological presentation of the American sector from the occupation until the day of the landings and an exhibition of guns, uniforms and military vehicles that served in the Second World War. Next you will stop at Pont du Hoc, the famous point that was taken by storm by Colonel Rudder's Rangers on the morning of June 6th, and was one of the strong points of the German fortifications. After lunch on your own, you will visit Memorial Pegasus dedicated to the parachutists and glider-borne troops who were the first to land in the invasion of Normandy. Overnight in Caen.

October 3- Caen/Versailles/Paris

Today you will head to Paris with a stop at the palace and gardens of Versailles, the retreat of French royalty. Admire the sumptuous reception rooms, the intriguing Hall of Mirrors, the famous fountains and the formal gardens. Continue to Paris in the late afternoon. A one-hour cruise on the river Seine will introduce you to the city. Enjoy an included dinner this evening.

October 4 – Paris

Enjoy the splendor of Paris on your morning sightseeing tour on both banks of the Seine. View the Arc de Triomphe, the elegant Champs-Élysées and Place de la Concorde. The highlight of the tour will be a visit to the world-renowned Louvre Museum where you will marvel at magnificent works of art by some of the most famous artists from around the world. The painting of the Mona Lisa awaits you as you make your way through the many exhibits of the museum with your local guide. The afternoon is at leisure for shopping or personal activities.

The day will begin with a visit to Paris' greatest treasure, the Gothic Cathedral of Notre Dame with its gleaming stained-glass windows. You'll continue to the Eiffel Tower—one of the wonders of the modern world—with its famous panoramic view of the city. October 7 – Nice (Monte Carlo & San Remo)

After breakfast, you'll begin a very scenic drive to Monte Carlo, capital of the tiny, wealthy Principality of Monaco. Your escort will walk you around Prince Ranieri's jewel—probably the most glamorous place on earth. You'll visit the rose garden of Princess Grace and the cathedral where her tomb is located. Afterwards, continue your drive across the border into Italy to the lovely seaside town of San Remo. Here you'll have free time for shopping, strolling along the beach, and sampling authentic Italian gelato. Return to Nice for an overnight.

October 8 – Nice (St. Paul de Vence & Antibes)

Drive to Saint-Paul de Vence, a typical early fortified town known as one of the most beautiful villages in Provence. It's famed beauty and exceptional light have inspired numerous artists throughout the ages and made it a popular draw for famous painters who used to meet in the Colombe d'Or. Its narrow, picturesque streets, many gardens, museums and artisan shops keep it a popular destination today. On the way back, stop in Antibes, a quaint fortified town with a beautiful harbor, winding streets, many boutiques and lovely restaurants.
